LOCAL & AREA NEWS

◆ ELECTRICITY RATES TO RISE AGAIN

The cost of operating our lights, radios, computers, and TV is going up again. TVA says wholesale electricity rates will jump 6.4% in October. It'll mean about a $7 per month increase in the typical residential utility bill in the Tennessee Valley. TVA says it had to reduce generation at its biggest nuclear plant because it was pumping too much hot water back into the Tennessee River. As a result, TVA had to buy more power elsewhere at higher prices. TVA has raised its wholesale rates every month for the past several months.

◆ McMINN COUNTY POLICE GET FUNDS

The Tennessee Department of Transportation is awarding $15 million in Highway Safety Grants to police departments across the state. The Athens Police Department will get $15,000 for its "Safe Roads for Athens" project. The Etowah PD will get $15,000 for its "Working to Keep Etowah Streets Safe" project. The McMinn County District Attorney's office will get nearly $143,000 for a special DUI prosecutor. The McMinn County Sheriff's Department and the Englewood Police Department each will get $5,000 for high visibility law enforcement campaigns. The Niota PD will get about $4,800 for its high visibility law enforcement campaign.

NATIONAL-WORLD NEWS

◆ There was a big victory for the Tea Party in Tuesday's primaries. Conservative Christine O'Donnell upset Rep. Mike Castle in the Republican Senate primary in Delaware. Tea Party candidates have now won at least seven GOP Senate races, dozens of House primary campaigns, and a handful of Republican gubernatorial contests.

◆ Tropical Storm Karl hit Mexico's Yucatan Peninsula on Wednesday before heading towards the Gulf of Mexico, where it is expected to strengthen into a hurricane by the end of the week and threaten the central Mexican coast. Meanwhile, forecasters say Hurricane Igor could hit Bermuda on Sunday.

◆ The U.S. government says the BP oil well that blew out nearly five months ago in the Gulf of Mexico is expected to be permanently sealed and declared dead by Sunday.

◆ Edwin Newman, longtime NBC Radio and TV newsmen, has died at age 91. From 1952 to 1984, Newman did political and foreign reporting, radio newscasts, "Meet the Press," "Today," and "The Nightly News" for NBC Radio and TV. He announced the death of President Kennedy on radio.

◆ New Orleans Saints player Reggie Bush is giving back his 2005 Heisman Trophy after violating rules by accepting hundreds of thousands of dollars in gifts from two marketing agents.
