LOCAL & AREA NEWS

◆ TWO JAILED IN CHARLESTON ROBBERY

The Bradley County Sheriff's Office has arrested two men in connection with the robbery at Preferred Family Pharmacy in Charleston earlier this month. A detective spotted a vehicle that matched the description of the one used by the robbers and pulled it over. Justin Thomas Lafuze of Cleveland and his alleged accomplice, 28-year-old Aaron Thomas Hensley, were both charged with robbery. Police say Lafuze was the man who wore a mask and entered the pharmacy on Sept. 4, while Hensley waited in the getaway car.

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

✓ The 4th Annual Ultimate Cowboy Challenge will take place tonight and tomorrow night, 7 p.m., at the Athens Regional Park. Proceeds go to the McMinn County Equine Association's scholarship fund.

✓ The Cedar Springs United Methodist Church's Angel Kitchen will be open tomorrow from 4 to 6 p.m. at the church. The event offers patrons a free meal prepared by members of the church. It is open to everyone. Donations will be accepted to support the ministry.

✓ The annual Life Chain, a silent prayer vigil against abortion, will be held on Sunday, October 3, from 2 to 3 p.m. in Tellico Plains at Highway 68 and New Providence Road.

NATIONAL-WORLD NEWS

◆ The nation's poverty rate has climbed to the highest level since the 1960's as the recession threw millions of people out of work. One in seven Americans is now living in poverty. The share of Americans without health coverage has climbed too, mostly because of the loss of employer-provided health insurance.

◆ Unemployment claims have dropped for the third time in four weeks. In a separate report, the Labor Department says wholesale prices were relatively flat in August, indicating the weak economy is keeping inflation in check. On Wall Street, the Dow Jones Industrials Average closed at 10,594.83; up 22.10 points.

◆ A man shot and wounded a doctor and then barricaded himself inside a room at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore. The man then killed his mother who was in the hospital room and then himself. He was apparently upset over the medical treatment his mother had received.

◆ The government says the rate of illegal drug use rose last year to the highest level in nearly a decade, fueled by a sharp increase in marijuana use and a surge in ecstasy and methamphetamine abuse.

◆ Researchers say violent video games like "Call of Duty" can help trigger-happy players make decisions faster in real life by leading to more efficient use of sensory evidence.
