LOCAL & AREA NEWS

◆ DAYLIGHT ROBBERY AT THE ROCKY TOP

A lone gunman held up the Rocky Top on Decatur Pike at I-75 around 8:20 Thursday morning in a daring daylight robbery. The robber walked in, pulled a gun, and asked for the money from the cash register. He left in a black Mustang, headed west on Highway 30. The vehicle was located about three hours later by McMinn County Sheriff's Department officers on County Road 214, where it had been abandoned and burned. The search for the suspect continues.

◆ McMINN ELECTION RESULTS REVISED

McMinn Election Administrator Kris Williams says a software error means the election totals have changed. The new figures make Larry Lunsford the winner over Kelly Burns in the Calhoun City Commission race. The winners in other races across the county did not change. However, the new figures show Steve Sherlin lost the Athens City Council race by just 10 votes, rather than 124. In the Athens School Board race, Pasha Versa lost by 34 votes, rather 10.

◆ VETERANS TO BE HONORED TOMORROW

All veterans in McMinn County are invited to participate in a special McMinn County Veterans Parade at 3 p.m. tomorrow in downtown Athens. The parade will honor the county's 4,300 veterans.

He also called for Senate votes to repeal Obama's health care law, cut spending, and shrink government.
