STATE AND LOCAL NEWS

◆ ANOTHER JIFFY ROBBED IN ATHENS

Athens police are looking for a man who robbed the Jiffy at 907 Decatur Pike Sunday night. The store's two cashiers say the man handed them a note claiming he had a gun and telling them to give him all of the money. They said there was a bulge under his sweatshirt that appeared to be a handgun. He took an undisclosed amount of money and left on foot. It was the second armed robbery in Athens in less than 24 hours. A robber held up the Walgreens on Congress Parkway early Sunday, getting narcotics and cash.

◆ FEMA TO OPEN McMINN OFFICE THIS WEEK

FEMA will open its McMinn County Disaster Relief Center at the Claxton Fire Hall later this week. McMinn County Emergency Management Agency Director Betty Hamby says the exact day has not been announced because FEMA is in the process of adding additional phone and internet lines at the fire hall. Hamby says storm victims should pre-register at the McMinn County E-911 Center at 1107 Congress Parkway South in Athens. Call 744-5256 to make an appointment. You can also pre-register by calling 1-800-621-3362 or by going to: www.fema.gov. FEMA says any McMinn County citizen with any type of storm damage should register in order to determine if they qualify for assistance.

NATIONAL-WORLD NEWS

◆ Pakistan's prime minister says Osama bin Laden's death in an American raid was "indeed justice done." However, he warned that future unilateral strikes inside his nation's borders could be met with "full force."

◆ Newt Gingrich is running for president. The former House Speaker disclosed on Twitter and Facebook on Monday that he would be announcing his candidacy for the Republican nomination on Fox News on Wednesday.

◆ Stocks moved higher on Monday as a bounce-back in commodities lifted energy and materials shares, offsetting concerns about European debt. The Dow Jones Industrial Average closed at 12,684.68; up 45.94 points.

◆ The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration has expanded its investigation into steel straps that hold the F-150 fuel tanks in place. The straps may rust and break.

◆ Singer Whitney Houston is back in rehab. A spokeswoman for the superstar singer says Houston voluntarily signed on as an outpatient for drug and alcohol treatment.

◆ Meredith Vieira says she will leave NBC's "Today" show next month to spend more time with her family. She has three children and her husband has multiple sclerosis.
