◆ MONROE COUNTY NABS ILLEGAL CASH

Two Hispanic males were turned over to Immigration and Customs Enforcement officials after a routine traffic stop at Exit 62 of I-75 last week. Monroe Sheriff's Department officers received permission to search their vehicle and found an "intricately" concealed compartment that contained $160,975 in cash. The two denied any knowledge of the money. The Sheriff's Department seized their car and the cash.

◆ POLK COUNTY MURDER CASE SOLVED

Polk County authorities have made an arrest in the murder of David Gardner of Farmer, Tenn. whose body was found in a pool of blood at his home on February 4th. Chad Warner, 35, (in photo) has confessed to the murder. Gardner and Warner got into a fight, Warner struck Gardner and killed him.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

◆ Euro zone finance ministers inched towards approving a second bailout for debt-laden Greece that would resolve Athens' immediate repayment needs but seems unlikely to revive the nation's shattered economy.

◆ Senior U.N. inspectors arrived in Iran on Monday to push for transparency about its disputed nuclear program. Several European states halted purchases of Iranian oil as part of Western moves to pile pressure on a defiant Tehran.

◆ U.S. Senators in Cairo said they hoped for a swift end to a row over U.S. pro-democracy activists accused of working illegally in Egypt and said they were committed to help Egypt nurture its democratic institutions and rebuild its economy.

◆ Syrian forces opened fire with live ammunition on demonstrators in Damascus overnight, wounding at least four, as unrest continued to spread in the capital.

◆ Mitt Romney is struggling to regain control of the race for the Republican presidential nomination. Restore Our Future, the independent "Super PAC" that supports Romney, spent $13.5 million in January on ads attacking his rivals and still emerged with $16.3 million in the bank.
