Local & State News

- ◆ LIFEPOINT TO PURCHASE WOODS HOSPITAL
An asset purchase agreement has been signed between Lifepoint Hospitals and Woods Memorial Hospital. Specific terms of the agreement have not been disclosed, but the transaction is scheduled to be completed in approximately 30 days. Lifepoint operates 55 hospital campuses, including 10 in Tennessee, one of which is Athens Regional Medical Center.
- ◆ GOVERNOR SIGNS FOOD TAX-CUT BILL
Beginning July 1st, consumers will save a few cents when purchasing food. Governor Haslam signed a bill reducing the state sales tax on food items at Smith Brothers Grocery in Whitwell yesterday afternoon. The bill decreases the sales tax on food and food ingredients from 5.5% to 5.25%. That means a $100 food purchase would result in a 25-cents savings.
- ◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:
✓ A retirement reception honoring David Pierce, outgoing McMinn County Director of Schools, for his services will be held this coming Sunday, June 10th, from 2 to 4 p.m. at Calhoun Elementary School. The public is invited. The school is located at 150 Sherwood Avenue in Calhoun.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

- ◆ The child sex abuse trial of former Pennsylvania State University assistant football coach Jerry Sandusky starts today. Sandusky faces 52 counts of molesting 10 boys over a 15-year period. Prosecutors say Sandusky met the boys through a charity he founded and some of the assaults occurred at Penn State facilities.
- ◆ Two pilots have been killed in the crash of their firefighting aircraft, which hit rugged terrain near the Utah-Nevada border. The plane was dropping fire retardant on a 5,000-acre wildfire.
- ◆ The American pilot of the Dana Air flight that crashed in Lagos, Nigeria, on Sunday radioed the control tower to report engine trouble shortly before the crash. All 153 people on the MD-83 were killed, along with at least 10 people on the ground, when the plane slammed into a two-story residential building.
- ◆ A new study shows the herb ginseng appears to significantly reduce fatigue among patients being treated for cancer. In the study, the patients took capsules of pure American ginseng and after eight weeks, there was significant reduction in their fatigue.
- ◆ "Diet" goggles have been unveiled in Japan. The goggles trick the wearer into thinking the plain snack in their hand is a chocolate cookie or make cookies appear bigger. Volunteers consumed 10% less when the food looked 50% bigger.
