◆ INGLESIDE SCHOOL CELEBRATES 75 YEARS

◆ STATE ISSUES OCT. DISCIPLINARY REPORT

The monthly Commerce and Insurance regulatory report has been issued. It can be a useful tool for examining licensed professionals. The following link is for the month of October: <http://tn.gov/commerce/boards/documents/DAR-November2012.pdf>

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

◆ An Israeli missile flattened a two-story house in a residential neighborhood of Gaza City on Sunday, killing at least 11 civilians. Israel expanded a military offensive to target homes of militants.

◆ The U.S. and Britain have warned Israel about the risks of expanding its air assault on the Gaza Strip into a ground war, while vigorously defending the Jewish state's right to protect itself against rocket attacks.

◆ Hostess Brands Inc., baker of Wonder Bread as well as Twinkies, Ding Dongs and Ho Ho's, will be in a New York bankruptcy courtroom today to start the process of selling itself. The company decided to declare bankruptcy and liquidate its assets after union members refused to go back to work.

◆ Crews continued their search for a worker still missing after an oil platform explosion and fire in the Gulf of Mexico on Friday. Doctors said one of four men burned in the blaze is improving and is now in fair condition. Two remained in critical condition and one in serious condition. One body was discovered in about 30 feet of water next to the oil platform.

◆ The 23-year-old son of Bernie Madoff's longtime accountant, has committed suicide in central Ohio,

DBA TWILIGHT SHOPPING EVENT

The Athens Downtown Business Shopping Event on Friday evening was a great success! Shoppers were entertained as they got the jump on Christmas shopping downtown. "Steel Kicken" performed at Pam's 2-Step with Larry Malone on the guitar, Sid Matthews, Ronnie Miller, Buddy Whaley, & C.H. Wilson on the harmonica. Alex Fesmire and Josh Stephens in the below photo, performed at Greek's Bearing Gifts. Photos by Cheri Harrison.

The Downtown Business Association's next event will be "Old Fashioned Downtown Christmas" and will be held on Saturday, December 8th from 3 to 8 p.m.

Obituaries

Randal Wyman Shugart, age 60, of Delano, died Thursday, Nov. 15th at Woods Memorial Hospital. He retired from J. M. Huber Company in 2006. Funeral services were held Sunday at Bordwine Funeral Home.

James "Johnny" Russell Alloway, age 73, of Etowah, died Friday at his home. A graveside memorial service will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday at Green Hill Cemetery. There will be no formal visitation. Bordwine Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Weekend Scoreboard

The Big Orange got crushed by Vanderbilt 41 to 18 on Saturday, which ruined their chance to become bowl eligible. Tennessee coach Derek Dooley was fired and a replacement is now being sought by U.T.
