◆ BODY OF MISSING MENNONITE GIRL FOUND

The body of 7-year-old Helana Alley was found yesterday in the water of Conasauga Creek near Delano. Her body was found near the water wheel in the creek. The body of her father, 36-year-old Nick Alley, is still missing, and the body of her brother, 6-year-old Lazarus Alley was found last Thursday. The three drowned on January 16th when their boat capsized with 3 other siblings in the rain-swollen waters of the creek. Rescue team members say they will continue their search, in an attempt to find the body of their father. In the photo is West Polk Fire-Rescue Chief Steve Lofty (second from right), along with search dog "Buddy" and a team of searchers from Knoxville.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

◆ In a speech on Tuesday afternoon in Las Vegas, Nev., President Obama unveiled his vision for immigration reform itelling Congress that he will send them his own bill and call for a vote if they don't move fast.

◆ Florida Republican Sen. Marco Rubio, said on Tuesday that President Obama must be willing to accept border security measures as part of a comprehensive immigration reform package or else "there won't be a solution." During an interview on Rush Limbaugh's radio program, Rubio stated that if " he's gone to Las Vegas to give a speech and try to trigger a bidding war, then no, it doesn't bode well. There won't be a solution, unless there's real enforcement triggers, we're not going to have a bill that moves on."

◆ AFL-CIO President Richard Trumka said organized labor will mount a "full-fledged" campaign to help drive a comprehensive immigration reform through Congress. Trumka's federation comprises of 57 unions representing some 12 million people, called the planned overhaul "one of our top priorities right now."

◆ The Senate confirmed Democrat John Kerry of Massachusetts to be the next secretary of state, ending a largely noncontroversial process. A hotly contested special election for the seat Kerry has held since 1985 is expected to begin.

TWC STUDENTS AT URBANA

Four Tennessee Wesleyan College students did not take a break from their education during their December winter break. Instead, they and two of their professors were among the more than 16,000 participants who gathered in St. Louis, Missouri, to attend Urbana 12, a large-scale missions event that aims to compel today's young people to give their whole lives for God's global mission. Pictured below (L-R) are Dr. Chris Dover, Kortni Lake, Sara Phelps, Tara Bugg, and Dr. Nancy Gregg. Not pictured is Meagen Akins.

Obituaries

Joyce E. Shell, age 80, of Etowah died Monday at Woods Memorial Hospital. She had worked at McDonalds and Scotties. Funeral services will be at 7 p.m. Friday at Bordwine Funeral Home, with visitation from 5 to 7 p.m. at the funeral home.

◆ ETOWAH RESCUE SQUAD REPORT

The Etowah Rescue Squad and Rural Fire Department responded to a total of 379 calls in 2012. The calls involved 3,540 man hours. There were 187 First Responder calls, 69 motor vehicle accidents, 28 wild land fires, 16 mutual aid calls, 13 structure fires, 10 rescue responses, 7 vehicle fires, and 36 miscellaneous calls. In March alone there were 1,429 man hours involved. That was mainly a result of tornadoes.

◆ ATHENS CONSTRUCTION UPDATE

The Athens Community Development Department issued 384 building permits in 2012 for a total construction cost of $11,938,585.00. That is up substantially from 2011, when 345 permits were issued for a total of $6,539,038.00. The highest number of building permits in recent years came in 2001, when 618 permits were issued for total construction of $24,237,497.00. In the last three months of 2012, 76 construction permits were issued. One of them was for a new residence, one was for a new garage or storage shed, and the remainder were for additions to commercial buildings or residences, demolition, plumbing, electrical work, mechanical work, remodeling, and signs.
