World & National News

◆ 26-year-old Ammar Harris is the subject of a multi-state man-hunt after a Maserati driver was shot dead and a taxi driver and passenger also died in the fiery chain reaction wreck that followed on the Las Vegas Strip last Thursday. Harris allegedly shot from a Range Rover he was riding in according to authorities. They believe he was riding with Tineesha Lashun Howard, a 22-year-old from Miami. Howard has been arrested multiple times on charges including prostitution, trespassing, possession of a stolen vehicle and grand larceny.

◆ President Obama and Congressional leaders paid tribute to a civil rights pioneer at the unveiling of a statue of Rosa Parks at the U.S. Capitol on Wednesday. Parks refused to move to the back of a segregated bus in Montgomery, Alabama in 1955 which sparked a movement against racial prejudice with one simple act.

◆ The world's tallest hotel, JW Marriott's Marquis Dubai formally opened Feb. 26. Guinness World Records gave it the title of the tallest hotel in the world. It stands at 1,099 feet and would tower over skylines in most cities. In Dubai, it sits in the shadow of its more than twice-as-high neighbor, the Burj Khalif, the world's tallest skyscraper at 2,717 feet.
