PLANE WRECKAGE FOUND IN MONROE CO.

Search crews found the wreckage of a missing single-engine airplane in the Goat Creek area of Monroe County near Calderwood Dam Monday morning. The plane disappeared on a flight from Indiana to Georgia. The only person on board, the pilot, was killed in the crash.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

- ◆ Searchers are racing to locate the black boxes from the Boeing 777 that crashed into the southern Indian Ocean before a battery-powered ping they emit fades away. Without the black boxes, it would be virtually impossible for investigators to definitively say what caused the crash.
- ◆ The 2-year-old toddler who was shot five times by Taliban militants has regained consciousness and asked for his mother. He and his family were attacked at a Kabul hotel where his father, who was a journalist, was killed.
- ◆ Five former employees of imprisoned financier Bernard Madoff were convicted Monday after a six-month trial that portrayed them as telling an elaborate web of lies to hide a fraud that enriched them and cheated investors out of billions of dollars.
