NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

- ◆ According to royal officials, Britain's Prince William and wife Kate, the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge, are expecting their second child. As with her first pregnancy for son George who is now 1, Kate is suffering from hyperemesis gravidarum, a condition characterized by acute morning sickness.
- ◆ Three Italian nuns were found killed and decapitated in the north of Burundi's capital. One was 75, one was 82, and the third nun was 79. Evidence showed that two of the nuns were raped before they were killed. Burundi is in the African Great Lakes region of southeast Africa, bordered by Rwanda to the north, Tanzania to the east and south and the Democratic Republic of the Congo to the west.
- ◆ Since the beginning of the year, as many as 700 children have been killed or maimed in Iraq. Some of them were used as suicide bombers by the Islamic State militant group. The Islamic State group now controls a large swath of Iraq and Syria and has become a brutal violator of children's rights.
- ◆ Briefings will be held this week and next by Obama administration officials for members of the U.S. Congress as the president makes his case for an offensive against Islamic State militants. Administration officials will hold a briefing for all 435 members of the U.S. House of Representatives on Thursday.
- ◆ After TMZ released the video of running back Ray Rice knocking out his wife, all the support the Baltimore Ravens had given him during the off season, as he dealt with his domestic violence incident, evaporated. Rice was cut from the team on Monday afternoon and his contract was cancelled.

TODAY IN HISTORY – SEPTEMBER 9th

- 1754 - British seaman William Bligh was born. He became famous after a mutiny took place on his ship, "The Bounty." He and 18 members of his crew were forced off the ship and drifted 3,600 miles in the South Pacific before being rescued.
- 1776 - The Second Continental Congress officially changed the new American nation's name from "United Colonies" to "United States."
- 1836 - Abraham Lincoln received his license to practice law.
- 1896 - The first successful heart surgery was performed in Germany on a patient who had been stabbed in the heart during a fight.
- 1926 - The National Broadcasting Company (NBC) was organized as a broadcasting service of the Radio Corporation of America.
- 1956 - On this Sunday night, 54,000,000 viewers (82.6 percent of the U.S. television audience) turned their TV dials to CBS to see and hear 21-year-old singer Elvis 'The Pelvis' Presley. Elvis sang Don't Be Cruel and Ready Teddy. One female Elvis fan described him as, "One big hunk of forbidden fruit." Elvis got the largest fee to that date for appearing on The Ed Sullivan Show: $50,000.
- 1979 - Tracy Austin became the youngest player to win the U.S. Open women's tennis title. She was 16 years old.
- 1986 - Ted Turner presented the first of his colorized films on his superstation WTBS in Atlanta, GA. The first Hollywood classic to get the new look was Yankee Doodle Dandy. Some people were opposed to the colorization process, where color is added to black-and-white movies. They felt the originals should be pristine and that any change interferes with the original creativity.
