State & Local News

◆ A SURE SIGN OF SPRING!

It's still nine days before the official start of spring, but the flowers are getting a head start. Our photographer spotted these flowers already blooming in the Ridgeways area this past weekend.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

◆ Investigators say 62 people were injured after an Amtrak train crashed into a tractor-trailer that was in the middle of a train crossing in North Carolina.

◆ A movement in Italy is gaining ground to give female leaders titles that reflect their gender instead of the traditional masculine titles; "il ministro" for government ministers would become "la ministra" as an example.

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

✓ SETHRA will be giving out commodities in McMinn County this Thursday at the National Guard Armory from 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon. You must be signed up to receive your commodities.

✓ The Tennessee Overhill Heritage Association announces the publication of its new Waterfall Brochure. There are more than 60 waterfalls in the Tennessee Overhill area. The new brochure features more than 20 of them, complete with directions to each one. For a free copy of the Waterfall Brochure, call 263-7232.

✓ In case you missed it, the McMinn Central girls basketball team lost to Martin Luther King of Nashville Sunday evening in the state championship game. The score was 58 to 51.
