Local & State News

◆ COORDINATED CHARITIES INSTALLS GARDENS

Thanks to volunteer labor and donated supplies, Coordinated Charities now has ten raised bed gardens. Executive Director Kevin Lane says they will be able to include fresh vegetables when they give groceries to needy families. He says they also plan to give them a "Garden To Go," which will be a tomato plant in a bucket filled with soil. Lane says materials for the gardens came from the Athens Lions Club, Hiwassee Builders, Howard Brothers Saw Mill, Monterey Mushrooms, and the City of Athens. The photo to the right shows Lane and Coordinated Charities employee Grace Weaver watering the plants. Lane hopes the clients will also do some of the work. He also needs people to donate 5-gallon buckets.

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

✓ A Relay for Life fund-raising Yard Sale sponsored by the McMinn County Health Department will be held this Saturday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Show Barn on County Road 554. All proceeds will go to the McMinn County Relay for Life.

NATIONAL & STATE NEWS

◆ The Tennessee House has failed to override Governor Haslam's veto of the bill to make the Bible the official state book. It takes 50 votes to override a veto. The override effort only got 43 votes.

◆ The Treasury Department says abolitionist Harriet Tubman will replace Andrew Jackson on the new $20 bill.
