Local and Area News

◆ NO INJURIES IN TWO INCREDIBLE WRECKS

Two roll-over wrecks occurred within 30 minutes of each other Friday evening near Englewood. The first one was at 6 p.m. when a 2005 Cadillac CTS left Highway 39 East and rolled down a steep embankment. (See photo below, on the left) The second wreck happened around 6:30 p.m. on County Road 480 when a 2011 Nissan Altima rolled down another embankment. (See photo below, on the right) Amazingly, there were no injuries reported. The Englewood and Etowah Rural Fire Departments responded to both wrecks. Photos submitted to the MORNING FAX by Lynn Ingram with the Englewood RFD.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

◆ A 6-year-old boy critically wounded in the shooting at an elementary school in Townville, South Carolina, last Wednesday, died on Saturday. Jacob Hall was shot in the leg by a suspected 14-year-old gunman who opened fire at the school's outdoor playground.
