Local and Area News

◆ TOTES ARE STILL NEEDED FOR VICTIMS

The Tornado Victim Relief Center at the American Bedding warehouse on Dennis Street still has plenty of clothing and other household items available to victims of the recent tornado. All you have to do is go to the Center with ID and some type of proof of your residence. However, the Relief Center needs totes. If you would be willing to donate totes, just take them to the center.

◆ RESOLUTE HELPS FOSTER CHILDREN

Resolute Forest Products has partnered with the McMinn County Foster Care Association for many years to provide Christmas gifts for area foster children. The year, Resolute employees purchased gifts for 50 children. Pictured with some of the gifts are from left: Association representative Jerry Harvey, Beth Bush and Jo Ann Combs with Resolute, Association Representative Peggy Carroll and Megan and Chad Sledge. (See photo to the right) ➡

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

✓ The Etowah Carnegie Library will offer Holiday Storytime and Crafts including a candy cane hunt and snowman crafts for children ages 4-12. That will be Monday afternoon, December 19th, at 1 p.m.

NATIONAL - WORLD NEWS

◆ President-elect Donald Trump made veterans' issues a centerpiece of his presidential campaign, but selecting a leader for the Department of Veterans Affairs will be one of the final decisions to round out his cabinet. One senior transition official said the position of VA secretary is proving to be the "most difficult" cabinet position to fill.
