State & Local News

◆ HAZARDOUS WASTE DISPOSAL TIME

The annual McMinn County Household Hazardous Waste Event will be held this Saturday, October 7th, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the McMinn County High School parking lot. The Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation, Keep McMinn Beautiful, and McMinn County and the City of Athens have partnered again to help you safely dispose of your household hazardous waste. Examples of waste items are drain cleaners, disinfectants oil and fuel additives, starter fluid, herbicides, pesticides, paint thinner, and pool chemicals. Radioactive material, explosives, or medical wastes will NOT be accepted. Prior to this event, the City of Athens will hold a BOPAE event at the Recycle Center this Thursday and Friday during normal operation hours. During those two days, staff and volunteers will be on site to assist in the collection of Batteries, Oil, Paint (oil based only), Antifreeze, and Electronics.

◆ LEAF SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

Loose leaf collection routes in Athens will begin Monday, November 6th. If you would like to have your leaves collected, simply rake them to within three to five feet from the edge of the street as soon as they fall to the ground. In areas where there are sidewalks, leaves should be placed behind the sidewalk, and Leaf Crews will pick them up from there. Do not place leaves around obstacles, such as trees, mailboxes, fences, or poles.

National & World News

◆ The man suspected of gunning down 59 people from Las Vegas' Mandalay Bay Resort and Casino had cameras set up inside and outside of his hotel room. One camera was on a service cart in the hallway.

◆ More than 15,000 people poured into the streets of Barcelona Tuesday to protest the use of force by Spanish police. More than 900 people were injured during Sunday's independence referendum in the region of Catalonia, in northern Spain. The official results of Sunday's referendum are expected to be presented to Catalonia's parliament on Wednesday or Thursday. The Spanish government considers the referendum illegal and in violation of the 1978 constitution.
