STATE & LOCAL NEWS

◆ VANDALS HIT CONCESSION STAND

Englewood police say two juveniles are facing charges after a concession stand on a football field near Englewood Elementary School was vandalized. Police Chief Jason Pickel says one of the suspects has confessed. Early estimates put the damage at several thousand dollars. (Photo from Police Chief Jason Pickel)

National & World News

◆ Days after missing, Florida teenager Caitlyn Frisina, 17, was found safe Friday in a car in Syracuse with Rian Rodriguez, who is a family friend and assistant soccer coach at her Florida High School. She has been reunited with her parents.

◆ Hundreds of Notre Dame students, employees and alumni want 12 prominent Christopher Columbus murals that were painted in the 19th century removed from the campus. They believe the paintings depict what they say is a glorified version of Columbus.

◆ The Metropolitan Opera in New York City is suspending conductor James Levine, as it investigates what it says are "multiple allegations of sexual misconduct" from the 1960s to the 1980s. The opera is launching an investigation of the conductor based on a 2016 police report filed in Illinois by a man who alleges he was molested as a teenager by Levine 30 years ago.

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

✓ SETHRA will be distributing commodities to eligible Meigs County residents tomorrow, Dec. 6th, from 8 a.m. until 11 a.m. at the SETHRA Office in Decatur. You must have a sheet in order to receive commodities on Wednesday.

RAM At Work In Puerto Rico

Volunteers with RAM (Remote Area Medical Clinics) are hard at work in Puerto Rico, providing health services to people who are not able to travel to a doctor or hospital as a result of Hurricane Maria which devastated the island eleven weeks ago. Mary Brown with the Athens Lions Club is one of those volunteers. RAM will be holding five medical, dental, and vision clinics in Puerto Rico from now until December 22nd. Ms. Brown said in the rural areas most people still do not have electricity or access to fresh water. Many roads are still blocked by trees or landslides. She e-mailed us several pictures showing some of the devastation.
