STATE & LOCAL NEWS

◆ DENSO EXPANDING AND HIRING!

A major expansion at DENSO will mean hundreds of new jobs at the Athens manufacturing location. DENSO announces it is expanding its North American operations through a $190 million investment in its Athens facility. The investment will add four new production lines and 320 jobs, and will increase DENSO's ability to produce and deliver key parts for its customers. Athens will debut one new production line for Gasoline Direct Injection injectors, as well as one low pressure fuel pump and two high pressure fuel pump production lines. DENSO is starting their hiring immediately and plans to fill all open positions by 2019. Anyone interested in applying can click: www.densocareers.com.

◆ UPCOMING DATES:

March 11: Time changes, spring forward
March 20: Spring Begins
April 1: Easter

National & World News

◆ Walmart has joined Dick's Sporting Goods in raising its age restriction to 21 years for the purchase of firearms. Dick's Sporting Goods will no longer sell "assault-style" rifles.

◆ Therapy dogs were on hand Wednesday to comfort high school students at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School as they headed back to class for the first time since a deadly shooting took place two weeks ago.

◆ A teacher at Dalton High School in Georgia was arrested Wednesday after barricading himself in a classroom. At least one shot was fired out the window. The teacher has been charged with aggravated assault, carrying a weapon on school grounds, terroristic threats, reckless conduct, possession of a gun during the commission of a crime and disrupting a public school. He is currently being held at the Whitfield County Jail without bond.

It's Weed Wrangle Time

This Saturday is Weed Wrangle Day at Hiwassee/Ocoee State Park. Never been to a weed wrangle? It's kind of like opposite day at the park. Weed Wrangle is a state-wide clean-up event dedicated to ridding Tennessee of non-native plant species. This Saturday, volunteers from across the state will be helping to eradicate invasive plants in public spaces. At the Hiwassee/Ocoee State Park the goal will be to eliminate as much privet as possible in an 8-hour span. Tools will be provided. Meet at the park office, 404 Spring Creek Road, Delano, at 8 a.m. and bring gloves, pants, and sturdy closed-toed shoes.
