◆ CAR WRECKS INSIDE ATHENS INSURANCE

A woman on her way to the Athens VA clinic, made a wrong turn Friday morning and wound-up inside the conference room of Athens Insurance on West Washington Avenue. The woman was driving northbound on Hill Street and made a right turn onto West Washington Avenue, going the wrong way on a one way street. She over-corrected when she saw another vehicle heading towards her and drove her Mercury Tracer into the front of the Athens Insurance building. She was injured and taken to the hospital by ambulance. Nobody was injured inside the building. (Photo submitted by Athens Insurance)

◆ FATAL WRECK IN DOWNTOWN ATHENS

A wreck Friday afternoon around 1:25 p.m. resulted in the death of 75 year-old Carolyn M. Boyd of Riceville. The wreck happened at the intersection of Green Street and Madison Avenue near Athens First Baptist Church. Investigators believe that Ms. Boyd suffered a medical episode which caused her to drive through a red light where she was struck by a Volvo Tractor Trailer driven by Dennis Chitwood, 53, of Blairsville, Georgia. Ms. Boyd was transported to Starr Regional Medical Center where she was pronounced deceased. The crash is still under investigation. No charges have been filed at this time. (Facebook Photo)

State & National News

◆ ARREST MADE IN MISSING AUTISTIC BOY

In Dickson County, a five-year-old non-verbal autistic boy, Joe Clyde Daniels, was reported missing by his parents on Wednesday, April 4th. After an exhaustive 3-day search, the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation determined that the child's father, Joseph Daniels, intentionally killed his son and hid the child's body. TBI agents arrested 28-year-old Joseph Daniels (in photo) and charged him with criminal homicide. Daniels was booked into the Dickson County Jail on a $1,000,000 bond. (TBI Photo)

◆ NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL NEWS

✓ Two soldiers were killed in a training flight of an Apache attack helicopter at Fort Campbell, Kentucky-Tennessee on Friday. They were killed in a U.S. Army AH-64E Apache helicopter and were assigned to the 101st Airborne Combat Aviation Brigade.

✓ Patrick Reed won the Masters Golf Tournament on Sunday. It was the first time he had ever been to the top in a major golf championship. After shooting in the 60s each of the first three days of the tournament, the 27-year-old only needed a one-under 71 on Sunday to win, finishing at 15-under overall.
