National & World News

◆ The suspected gunman who burst into a Trader Joe's in Los Angeles on Saturday, took hostages and got into a shootout with police, that left the store manager dead, was booked in the Los Angeles County jail on suspicion of murder. The suspect is being held on $2 million bail.

◆ A woman was impaled in the chest by a flying beach umbrella in Maryland on Sunday while enjoying a day at the beach. In order for her to be flown to a nearby hospital, the umbrella had to be cut in half.

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

✓ The Athens Thrive Team invites the community to a Downtown "Pop-up event" this Thursday from 5 to 7 p.m. The event will be held at the pocket park on North Jackson Street behind Big Belly Deli. You are invited to "be a sport" and show up. Due to the event, Jackson Street will be closed from Washington Avenue to College Street from 4 until 8 p.m.

✓ Main Street and Keep McMinn Beautiful have joined together to establish a "Keep Downtown Athens Beautiful" Award. This Beautification Award is designed to recognize businesses within the downtown Main Street District that exemplify innovative and extraordinary effort to enhance the visual image of their properties. The public is invited to nominate beautification projects by calling Lisa Dotson at 333-0329 by this Friday, July 27th.
