◆ MAN SHOT AT COOK PARK IN ATHENS

Athens police are investigating a shooting Sunday night in Cook Park. Police responded to a call about a shooting at 8:15 p.m. Upon arrival, they found that Willie Lusane, Jr., had been shot by an unknown male. After speaking with witnesses, officers determined that Lusane had been involved in an argument with a 17-year-old male. The 17-year-old left the area and returned with another male, who has yet to be identified. The other male produced a shotgun and shot Lusane in the thigh. Lusane was transported to the hospital with non life-threatening wounds. The 17-year-old male has been identified. Officers are actively pursuing leads in the case. Anyone who has information regarding the incident is asked to contact the Athens Police Department Detective Unit at 744-2730.

Gridiron Rivals Worship Together

Members of the McMinn County Cherokees and the Central Chargers football teams and their coaches attended a special worship service at Athens First Baptist Church this past Sunday. The players wore their jerseys and held their helmets while they heard a message encouraging them to be their best both on and off the football field. (Photo courtesy of Athens First Baptist Church)
