◆ DECATUR MAN DIES ON "THE DRAGON"

A Decatur man, 70-year-old Douglas Stoeppelwerth, is the latest person to be killed on the curvy Blount County road known as "The Dragon." Stoeppelwerth was riding his motorcycle on Highway 129 on Monday when he crossed the double yellow line and collided with a car. He was then thrown into the path of another oncoming car. He was the second motorcyclist to be killed on "The Dragon" in the past week.

◆ CAR DAMAGED BY FIRE ON HIGHWAY 411

The Englewood and Etowah rural fire departments responded to a vehicle fire on Highway 411 South Wednesday evening. The photo by Lynn Ingram of the Englewood Rural Fire Department shows Englewood firefighter Devin Jenkins spraying foam on the engine of the 2003 Nissan Maxima, which was heavily damaged.

State & Local News

◆ Hurricane Michael left a trail of destruction in its wake after making landfall on the Florida Panhandle Wednesday as a Category 4 storm. About 920,000 households and businesses are without power across Florida, Georgia, Alabama, South Carolina and North Carolina, and more than 30,000 workers from at least 24 states have been mobilized to restore power. At least six people have died, including an 11-year-old girl.
