Local & Area News

◆ TRUCK ROLLS, PASSENGER HURT
The driver of this 2006 Chevrolet Silverado lost control on Highway 411 south of Etowah early Saturday morning. The vehicle left the roadway, ran through the guardrail, and rolled several times down an embankment. One passenger was injured and taken to Starr Regional in Etowah. The Englewood and Etowah Rural Fire Departments responded along with the McMinn County Sheriff's Office and THP Officer Rodney Best.

National News

◆ The death toll stands at 18 people after Hurricane Michael roared ashore in Florida last week. Authorities expect the number to rise. As of Sunday, at least 200,000 electric power customers in Florida are still in the dark.

◆ Facebook says a hack in September allowed attackers to harvest millions of phone numbers, e-mail addresses, and such things as user names, birthdates, employment information, and recent website searches.

◆ With dozens of people still missing from Hurricane Michael, Amber Gee found her uncle and aunt when she logged onto a NOAA satellite map and spotted their H-E-L-P message from logs and downed trees on the family's front lawn.

CROWDS FLOCK TO PUMPKINTOWN

The temperature was a bit cool, but that didn't keep the crowds from converging on Downtown Athens Saturday for the annual Pumpkintown Festival. The day featured Indians, musicians, vendors, pet lovers, Corvette fans, and much more throughout the day. The Athens Parks Department and the Athens Area Youth Council hosted the annual Pumpkin Plinko game, as 204 competitors tried their hand at rolling a basketball through a maze of pumpkins. This photo from Greg Moses shows one young competitor. Proceeds will go toward the new Splashpad at the Regional Park.
