◆ WRECK SENDS VEHICLE INTO CREEK

A two-vehicle wreck at Green Street and S. Jackson St. Friday morning caused one of the vehicles to wind up in the creek. The photo shows Athens Firefighters using their training with ropes and haul systems to help the wrecker driver recover the vehicle from the creek. One patient was transported to the hospital.

More Local News

Rescue personnel were busy Saturday morning with a motorcycle wreck and a bicycle accident within one hour. Around 8 a.m., a pickup truck collided with a bicycle on County Road 420. The bicyclist was airlifted to UT Hospital. Then around 9 a.m., the driver of a 2006 Honda Shadow motorcycle lost control at County Roads 501 and 492. She was transported by ambulance to Starr Regional in Etowah. The Englewood, Etowah, and Niota rural fire departments responded. Both accidents were investigated by State Trooper Eric Diaz.
