Tuesday is "Bag" Day

Food City and the United Way of McMinn and Meigs Counties will be participating the store's annual Celebrity Bagging Event this Tuesday from 10 a.m. and 6 p.m. at the Athens' store. Local celebrities have volunteered their time and talents to bag groceries at the Athens Food City. Shoppers who wish to do so can make a contribution to the United Way at the checkouts, via collection containers, or they can elect to have their contribution added to their grocery total. The donations will benefit the United Way of McMinn and Meigs Counties and their member agencies. The Athens Food City is located at 14 South White Street.

FOOTBALL SCORES AND NEWS:

~Meigs County extended their unbeaten streak on Friday night by beating South Greene 42-13. The Tigers advance to the Division I Class 2A "Final Four" semi-finals and will face Trousdale County this Friday night at 7 p.m. The game will be played on a "neutral" field at Hartsville.

~The Tennessee Volunteers were beaten by Missouri on Saturday 50 to 17. U.T. will finish the regular season next Saturday against Vanderbilt. Kickoff is at 4 p.m. Eastern with TV coverage on the SEC Network. Should Tennessee win, they will become bowl eligible.

~The General Manager of the Cleveland Browns says he would like to interview former Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice to become their next head coach. The former Secretary said she "loved the Browns but wasn't ready to be a coach."
