◆ TWU NATIONAL BASEBALL CHAMPS - AGAIN!

The Tennessee Wesleyan Bulldogs won the NAIA World Series of Baseball Friday night in Lewiston, Idaho. They defeated St. Thomas of Florida by a score of 6-2. It was the second national championship game since 2012. The game was dedicated to 8-year-old Neyland Pickel, who threw out the ceremonial first pitch to start the game. Neyland is battling cancer for the 3rd time. The team lofted him on their shoulders after winning the championship. A welcome home celebration was held Saturday on the TWU campus where the team was honored and the national trophy was displayed.
