Coming Soon: Real-ID Licenses

Tennessee's Driver Services will start issuing Real-ID driver licenses beginning July 1st. The Real-ID compliant cards will be needed to fly on airplanes, go into federal buildings, or enter military bases effective October 1st, 2020. The new ID cards are marked with a gold circle with a white star in the center. The Real-ID is designed to make driver's licenses less susceptible to forgery by requiring proof of U.S. residency. Non-compliant driver licenses and identification cards issued beginning July 1st will display the phrase "NOT FOR FEDERAL IDENTIFICATION" on the front. You DO NOT need a Real-ID to drive, vote, purchase alcohol or cigarettes, or apply for federal benefits such as social security or veterans' benefits. You can still fly without a Real-ID card, but you must have another acceptable form of identification such as a passport.

Community News You Can Use

- ✓ The second week of Sounds of Summer takes place Saturday at 7 p.m. at Market Park in Downtown Athens. Kenslee Melhorn (right) will be the headliner. Nicholas Raper will open. The concerts are free. You may want to bring along a lawn chair.
- ✓ The Lucille N. Smith Art Exhibit is currently underway at the McMinn County Living Heritage Museum.

- ✓ Summer reading fun continues at E.G. Fisher Public Library. You are invited to join UT Extension on Monday, June 17th, at 2 p.m. for an exploration of germs in the world around us and ways to protect ourselves. Children will practice washing their hands and see the germs they wash away. The event is suggested for ages 4 to 12.

WRECK INVOLVING ARMY TANK ON I-75

An Army lowboy trailer carrying a military tank slid off Interstate 75 southbound at mile marker 25 in Bradley County around mid-day Thursday. The southbound lanes were closed for several hours Thursday afternoon while wreckers worked to pull the low-boy and its load out of the ditch. There were no reported injuries. Southbound traffic was diverted off the interstate at exit 27 until the roadway could be cleared.

NEW NAME FOR BB&T-SUNTRUST MERGER

The announcement was made several weeks ago that two of the largest banking companies would be merging. The banks are Atlanta-based SunTrust Banks and its rival, Winston-Salem, N.C.-based BB&T. The merger will create the sixth-largest bank in the U.S. The new name for the merged banks will be Truist Bank. You can expect to see that name (pronounced TRUE-ist) splashed across the southeast in the next year or so. The new company will be based in Charlotte, North Carolina. Atlanta will be home of the new company's wholesale banking operations.
