Students Involved in Tragic Accidents

Two students from East Tennessee have been killed and two others have been injured in three separate accidents in the past few days.

- Eleven-year-old Brianna Webb of Etowah died Friday from injuries she received in a jet ski accident while the family was on vacation in Pensacola, Florida. Brianna was a student at Etowah City School. (Photo from Facebook)

- Two students from Tennessee Wesleyan University were critically injured when they were hit by someone driving a stolen vehicle Friday night in Charleston, South Carolina. They are identified as Kyle Blessingame of Athens and Lane Lusk of Knoxville. Both are upcoming seniors at TWU. Kyle is studying physical therapy and Lane is a nursing student.

- An incoming freshman at Carson-Newman University, Seth Washam, was killed in an accident while on a trip to Guatemala. Washam died from an electrical short in a hotel swimming pool. His mother is executive director of Carson-Newman's Appalachian Outreach home repair ministry.
