Golfer Jack Nicklaus To Speak

The Athens Area Chamber of Commerce has chosen golfer Jack Nicklaus to be the speaker at the Chamber's annual benefit next June 27th. Tickets will go on sale in September. Jack Nicklaus has won 120 professional tournament victories worldwide and a record 18 professional major-champion titles (six Masters, five PGA Championships.

Four U.S. Opens, three British Opens). He is one of only five golfers who have won all four of golf's modern majors, an achievement often referred to as the career "Grand Slam." Nicklaus has been involved in the design of over 300 golf courses worldwide. He and his wife, Barbara, have a long history of involvement in numerous charitable activities, from junior golf to children's hospitals to several scholarship foundations. They are the guiding light for the Nicklaus Children's Health Care Foundation, which supports numerous pediatric health-care services in South Florida.

Suit Alleges 911 Dispatcher Mix-Up

A Davidson County judge has moved a lawsuit against the Metro Nashville government one step closer to a jury. The lawsuit is from the family of Waffle House shooting victim Ailah Dasilva. It alleges that the city is responsible for negligence by the 911 dispatchers that sent police to the wrong Waffle House on the morning of the massacre. Recordings show that a dispatcher inaccurately reported the address as 816 Murfreesboro Pike, a Waffle House in Hermitage. Meantime, the shooting was going on nine miles away at 3571 Murfreesboro Pike, a Waffle House in Antioch. The lawsuit accuses dispatchers with gross negligence and extreme recklessness. For two minutes, police drove to a Waffle House in Hermitage only to learn they were headed in the wrong direction. The lawsuit says dispatchers had several opportunities to get the correct address. At least four 911 callers had GPS coordinates that showed where their calls were coming from.

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE

✓ The Athens Parks and Reaction Department and E.G. Fisher Public Library are teaming up for a "Watermelon Explosion" Storytime tomorrow at 11 a.m. at the library. Families will hear watermelon stories like The Watermelon Seed with therapy dogs, Chloe and Zoey. After the stories, Parks and Recreation employees will help children add rubber-bands to a watermelon until it explodes! All children will take home free produce from the Farmer's Market. For more information, call 745-7782.
