First "Big" Snow of Winter 2020

Residents woke up Saturday to see the first "big" snow of the season. Forecasters predicted that the Athens area would receive at least 1 inch of snow with the snow showers ending around noon-time. They were pretty close. At the WYXI RADIO studios we measured about 2 inches of snow on our back porch (see photo) and we received numerous reports from our listeners of even more than that. The other photo shows Kelsey Case, of Athens, and the snowman that she made.

House Fire Friday Near Etowah

A fire at a house on County Road 882 near Etowah was reported around 11:30 p.m. Friday night. The fire began in the kitchen with the flames visible upon the arrival of firefighters. The structure sustained heavy smoke and fire damage in the kitchen and living room. Etowah and Englewood Rural Fire Departments, McMinn County Sheriff's Department, and AMR all responded. All occupants escaped without injury and the Red Cross was notified for assistance. Photo by Lynn Ingram with the Englewood Rural Fire Department.
