Community News You Can Use

- ✓ Nominations are now being accepted for McMinn County's "2021 Mother of the Year." Nomination forms and award guidelines may be obtained at the Athens Chamber of Commerce office at 13 North Jackson Street in Downtown Athens. The deadline for nominations is March 28th.
- ✓ The Athens City School Board will host a joint meeting with the Athens City Council on Monday, February 28th, at 5:30 p.m. The meeting will be held at the Athens Middle School Library at 200 Keith Lane.
- ✓ The Professor W.E. Nash & Principal E. Harper Johnson Lecture series has returned to the E.G. Fisher Public Library this month in celebration of Black History Month. This lecture series is presented in partnership with First United Presbyterian Church. There will be a movie featuring African-American stories each Thursday. You can learn about our local history with a poster display of notable locations and individuals from the African-American community. This exhibit is available for viewing during all library operating hours. On Monday, Feb. 21st at 2 p.m. there will be a panel discussion of Tennessee's historically Black colleges and universities with a panel of alumni who will discuss the history of the Black schools and their experiences as students. Join a book discussion led by Josh Bragg of the book "March: Book One" by John Lewis on Feb. 26th at 11 a.m.
