Man Arrested for Insurance Fraud

An investigation by special agents and fire investigators with the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation has resulted in the indictment and arrest of a Riceville man on a charge of insurance fraud. On July 21, 2020, TBI agents joined deputies with the McMinn County Sheriff's Department in investigating a structure fire on Highway 163 in Riceville. During the course of the investigation, agents determined the incident to be an incendiary fire. The investigation further revealed that the property owner, Hughie Hughes, still had in his possession items that were reported to his insurance company as being destroyed in the fire. On February 15th, the McMinn County Grand Jury returned indictments charging Hughie Hughes III, age 66, with one count of Insurance Fraud over $60,000. He was arrested Monday and booked into the McMinn County Jail on a $40,000 bond. (Submitted photo)

- ✓ The Etowah Chamber of Commerce will have their monthly "Good Morning, Etowah" event Thursday, March 3rd from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. It will be hosted at Etowah Utilities at 1313 South Tennessee Avenue. Attendees should bring a door prize and some non-perishable items for the local food pantry.
- ✓ The teacher shortage in Tennessee has gotten the attention of the General Assembly. A bill that is in consideration would allow the Department of Education commissioner to issue temporary permits to individuals to teach, even though they may not be state certified teachers. Permit holders could teach for up to three years. The number of people enrolling in teaching programs around the state has dropped almost 20 percent since the Covid 19 pandemic began.
