Davis Hits Everyone!

The Chilhowee Rod & Gun Club held its monthly .22 rifle bench rest 50 yard match this past Saturday, April 2nd.

Troy Lee Davis, age 10, won the junior match with a perfect score of 50.

Troy is the son of Robert & Jill Davis of Cleveland, and is the grandson of Rob Davis of Athens, retired Captain with the Athens Police Department.

Troy is a 5th grader at Hopewell Elementary School in Cleveland.

Community News You Can Use

- ✓ The TWU Concert Choir and Chorale will have a concert featuring The Song today, April 5th, beginning at 7 p.m. It will be at Allen Memorial United Methodist Church. The concert is free and open to the public.
- ✓ The very first "Doggie Easter Egg Hunt" will be Friday, April 8th at 6 PM at Prof Powers Pup Park, 27 Slack Road. Egg hunting will be divided into large and small dog areas and all dogs will need to be on a leash. Dogs and handlers will go into the dog parks and when the dog touches the treat filled egg, the handler will be allowed to put it in their basket. In addition to finding treat filled eggs, dogs will be eligible for other fun prizes. Dogs must not be aggressive, and handlers must be of age to be able to control their dogs on leash.

MONDAY'S MARKET REPORT: U.S. equities finished modestly higher. Global markets were generally higher while commodities finished mostly to the upside, including gains in oil and gold prices.
