Former Athens Mayor Passes Away

A former Athenian and City Mayor, Basil W. Turbyfill, passed away Wednesday, September 7th in Danville, Kentucky, at the age of 86. Turbyfill was the former President of Athens Furniture. While living in Athens, he received the Athens Chamber of Commerce Young Man of the Year and Man of the Year Awards. He was the owner of several businesses, including the former Snuffy's Restaurant in Athens and later, Jackson Furniture in Danville, Kentucky. He held leadership positions in the Republican Party and served as an advisor to the Governors of Tennessee and Kentucky. He also lead the fundraising effort to build the YMCA in Athens. Funeral arrangements were held on September 12th at Stith Funeral Home in Danville, Kentucky. (Photo Special to the Morning Fax)
