FRIDAY'S MARKET REPORT Equities traded higher with the recent rally that has put the S&P 500 firmly back in positive territory for the year with a gain of 7% in the first quarter. Interest rates dropped. This is part of a broader move lower for bond yields that continues to benefit the technology sector, as evidenced by the nearly 17% year-to-date increase in the Nasdaq. Markets appear to be finding some footing amid the outlook that the Fed is nearing the end of its rate hikes. The Dow Jones Average was up 415.12 to 33,274.15. The Standard & Poor's 500 Index was 0.00 to 4,050.83, and the NASDAQ Composite Index was up 208.44 to 12,221.91.
