Obituaries

♦ Perry Dale Allan Brown, age 50, only child of Belva Brown, suddenly passed away May 2nd at Wings of Love Outreach in Knoxville helping with construction projects for the church. Growing up he enjoyed helping his Grandpa Max and Adlers Towing. He enjoyed the Pontiac Driven and hanging with family and friends in his teen years. In 1996 he moved to Tellico Plains, with his family. He did construction work for Charles Anglin for many years, wiring over 100 Wendy's in GA. He enjoyed helping his Aunt and Uncle work on their farm in Sweetwater. Perry and his wife took over Kramboz BBQ restaurant in Tellico Plains. A memorial will be held by family. There will be no formal arrangements. Good Samaritan Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Camper Fire

Around 630 last Wednesday evening on Hwy 411N, Englewood, a UPS driver stopped to ask the owner if he knew that his camper was on fire. The owner was unaware of the fire and stated that the camper had been parked there for 12 years. The power runs underground to the nearby barn. The camper was valued at $2000.00 and was a total loss. Englewood and Etowah Rural Fire Departments responded.
