Local Recipient of Scholarship

In the photo below, Stacyc Heath, Admin Support Asst II, for the UT Extension office, in Athens, and mother of Kendall Heath, accepts a scholarship for her daughter in the amount of $500.00 from the Eastern Region of the TAFCE-Tennessee Association for Family and Community Education (Photo L-R: Leslye Beria and Stacyc Heath). Kendall is currently at UT Chattanooga beginning her second year of college and she received the scholarship due to her extraordinary efforts in her academic career. McMinn County FCE President Leslye Beria states,

"We are so proud of her. She is an amazing young lady." TAFCE has 3 clubs in McMinn County and belongs to the Eastern Region FCE. They were previously named "Extension Homemakers" or "Home Demonstration Clubs". The National Association for Family and Community Education (NAFCE) is one of the largest adult volunteer educational organizations in the country. Their goal is "To strengthen individuals and families through continuing education, leadership development and community service." Both McMinn County FCE, as well as the Eastern Region FCE, give a scholarship for a qualifying high school senior or college freshman, that is a member of 4-H, each year. For more information on McMinn County FCE Clubs, contact Sarah Kite at the UT Extension office, 423-745-2852. Photo submitted by Leslye Beria

Community News You Can Use

✓U.T. Extension-McMinn (FCS) announces their September and October Classes. One is the Walk Across Tennessee fitness program and it's time to register now. Individuals or teams (of 4) are encouraged to be active and record miles each day- all physical activity counts! This competition will be eight weeks in length. The team or individuals who log the most miles and go the farthest "across Tennessee" will earn prizes. Everyone who participates and accumulates at least 25 miles during the 8-weeks, will automatically be entered into a drawing for a grand prize. The deadline to register is September 17th. Participation is free and you can register online here: <https://mcminn.tennessee.edu/>
