Landon Clontz Achieves Prestigious Rank of Eagle Scout

Scout Troop 118, part of the Cades Cove District of the Smoky Mountain Council, proudly announces that Landon Clontz has earned the rank of Eagle Scout, the highest achievement in the Boy Scouts of America program.

Landon, a senior at McMinn County High School, has been an active Scout since 2017. His journey to Eagle Scout reflects years of dedication, leadership, and service. For his Eagle Scout project, Landon refurbished and renovated the McMinn County High School band room, creating a better space for current and future musicians. As a member of the school's marching band, this project was especially meaningful to him and will leave a lasting impact on his peers.

Beyond Scouting, Landon plans to attend East Tennessee State University (ETSU), where he will major in English to become a teacher. He is the proud grandson of Bill and Kathleen Clontz, who have supported him throughout his Scouting journey.

Achieving the rank of Eagle Scout is a significant milestone—only about 5% of Scouts nationwide reach this level. It requires earning at least 21 merit badges, demonstrating leadership, and completing a major service project that benefits the community. Eagle Scouts are recognized for their perseverance, character, and commitment to making a difference.

“We’re so proud of Landon,” said Doug McCutcheon, Scoutmaster of Troop 118. “Earning Eagle Scout isn’t easy—it takes years of effort, leadership, and service. It’s more than just an award; it’s something that will stick with him for life.”

Troop 118 meets every Monday at 6:30 p.m. at Keith United Methodist Church and welcomes youth interested in joining Scouting. Story Provided by: Diane Hutsell, Scout Leader

Two Residents Killed in House Fire Following Explosion on Hwy. 163

Two residents and a pet dog died Tuesday evening after a house fire that followed an apparent explosion along Highway 163 near Riceville.

The fire was reported around 6:30 p.m. after neighbors heard an explosion and saw flames coming from the residence, with concerns that occupants were still inside. When the first fire units arrived, flames were visible from the highway.

Multiple agencies responded to the scene, including Etowah Rural Fire, Claxton Fire, Calhoun Rural Fire, Etowah City Fire, Englewood Rural Fire, Riceville Fire, West Polk Fire/Rescue, and Bradley County Fire. Additional assistance was provided by the McMinn County Sheriff's Department, Tennessee Highway Patrol, AMR, VEC, and McMinn County Hazardous Materials Air Support. Etowah Rural Fire Capt. Ryland Hearn oversaw scene operations, while Englewood Rural Fire Lt. Caleb Martin was in charge of water operations.

Despite firefighting efforts, two residents and a pet dog were found deceased inside the home. Tennessee Bureau of Investigation Bomb and Arson investigators were called to the scene to determine the cause of the explosion and fire. The investigation is ongoing.
